Goa, a former Portuguese colony, is located on the West coast of India, and is arranged in two sections. The southern part has the best beaches and features elegant and upscale hotels. It is ideal for those looking for rest and peace. In the northern area, near the town of Panaji, there is more action and nightlife for people who are active and want many activities. The whole area has a fine mix of culture and leisure for every taste.

Casa de Goa 3* (North Goa)

Located on Calangute Beach in North Goa, this hotel combines its Mediterranean atmosphere with Portuguese culture. There are 38 rooms in a low building, and 12 suites in individual bungalows. There is bar and a restaurant featuring Portuguese and Indian cuisine. Ayurvedic massages are available as well as an outdoor pool.

Varca Palm Beach Resort 3* (South Goa)

This hotel is located on one of the most beautiful beaches of Goa at Salcette, some 30Km from the airport. The 103 rooms are distributed in 14 acres of luxuriant gardens. There are several restaurants including the famous Niel's Cabana on the beach.

Bogmallo Beach Resort 4* (South Goa)

This beautiful hotel is located on its own beach 10 minutes from Goa Airport. It has 126 rooms including 15 bungalows facing the beach. The Nautilus Restaurant offers Indian, Chinese and continental cuisine. It also has a large outdoor pool.

Holiday Inn 4* (South Goa)

This resort is located on the beach of Mobor south of Goa, 17km from Margao City and 42 Km from the airport. Its 203 rooms and suites are set among tropical gardens lined with coconut trees. It is built in a majestic Portuguese style. 7 restaurants will tempt your taste buds. For entertainment there is an outdoor pool, tennis courts, a spa with sauna, a Jacuzzi and fitness center.
