Optional tours :

Excursion to the Wulai native village (half day) : $60 per person

Taiwan is still home to dozens of ethnic groups whose culture is very much alive. This tour will take you by the Swallow Lake, then board a rickshaw for a ride to the Wulai waterfall. Stop by the statue of a great chief of the Atayal people, then attend a special cultural show. Return to Taipei.

Excursion to Chiufen Village (half day) :$49 per person

Departure for the north coast to the village of Chiufen built on a mountain side. Stroll the animated lanes. Then board the coach toward Chinkuashih village and Pitu Cape with its strange rock formations carved by the sea. Stop in Nanya a local fishing village, and see the two colour bay. A tour for nature lovers in search of the island's native lore.

Cultural tour of Taipei (half day) : $60 per person

This tour will help you appreciate the richness of Taipei's history. First stop is Lin An Tai house built in 1783 and one of the best examples of Ming residential architecture. Move on to Pao An Temple dedicated to the god of Medicine, one of the city's most important, which took 25 years to build. The materials and workers were imported from the mainland. Continue on to Dihua Lane near the Temple of Confucius. The tour ends with a demonstration of Kung Fu, and a 20 minute foot massage.
